

Winter

Ailie
Busby

I know it's winter when...

...my toes are cold
in the morning...

...and the sun
gets up late.

Spiky ice sparkles
in the sunshine.

It's time for snowsuits,
big boots and funny hats.

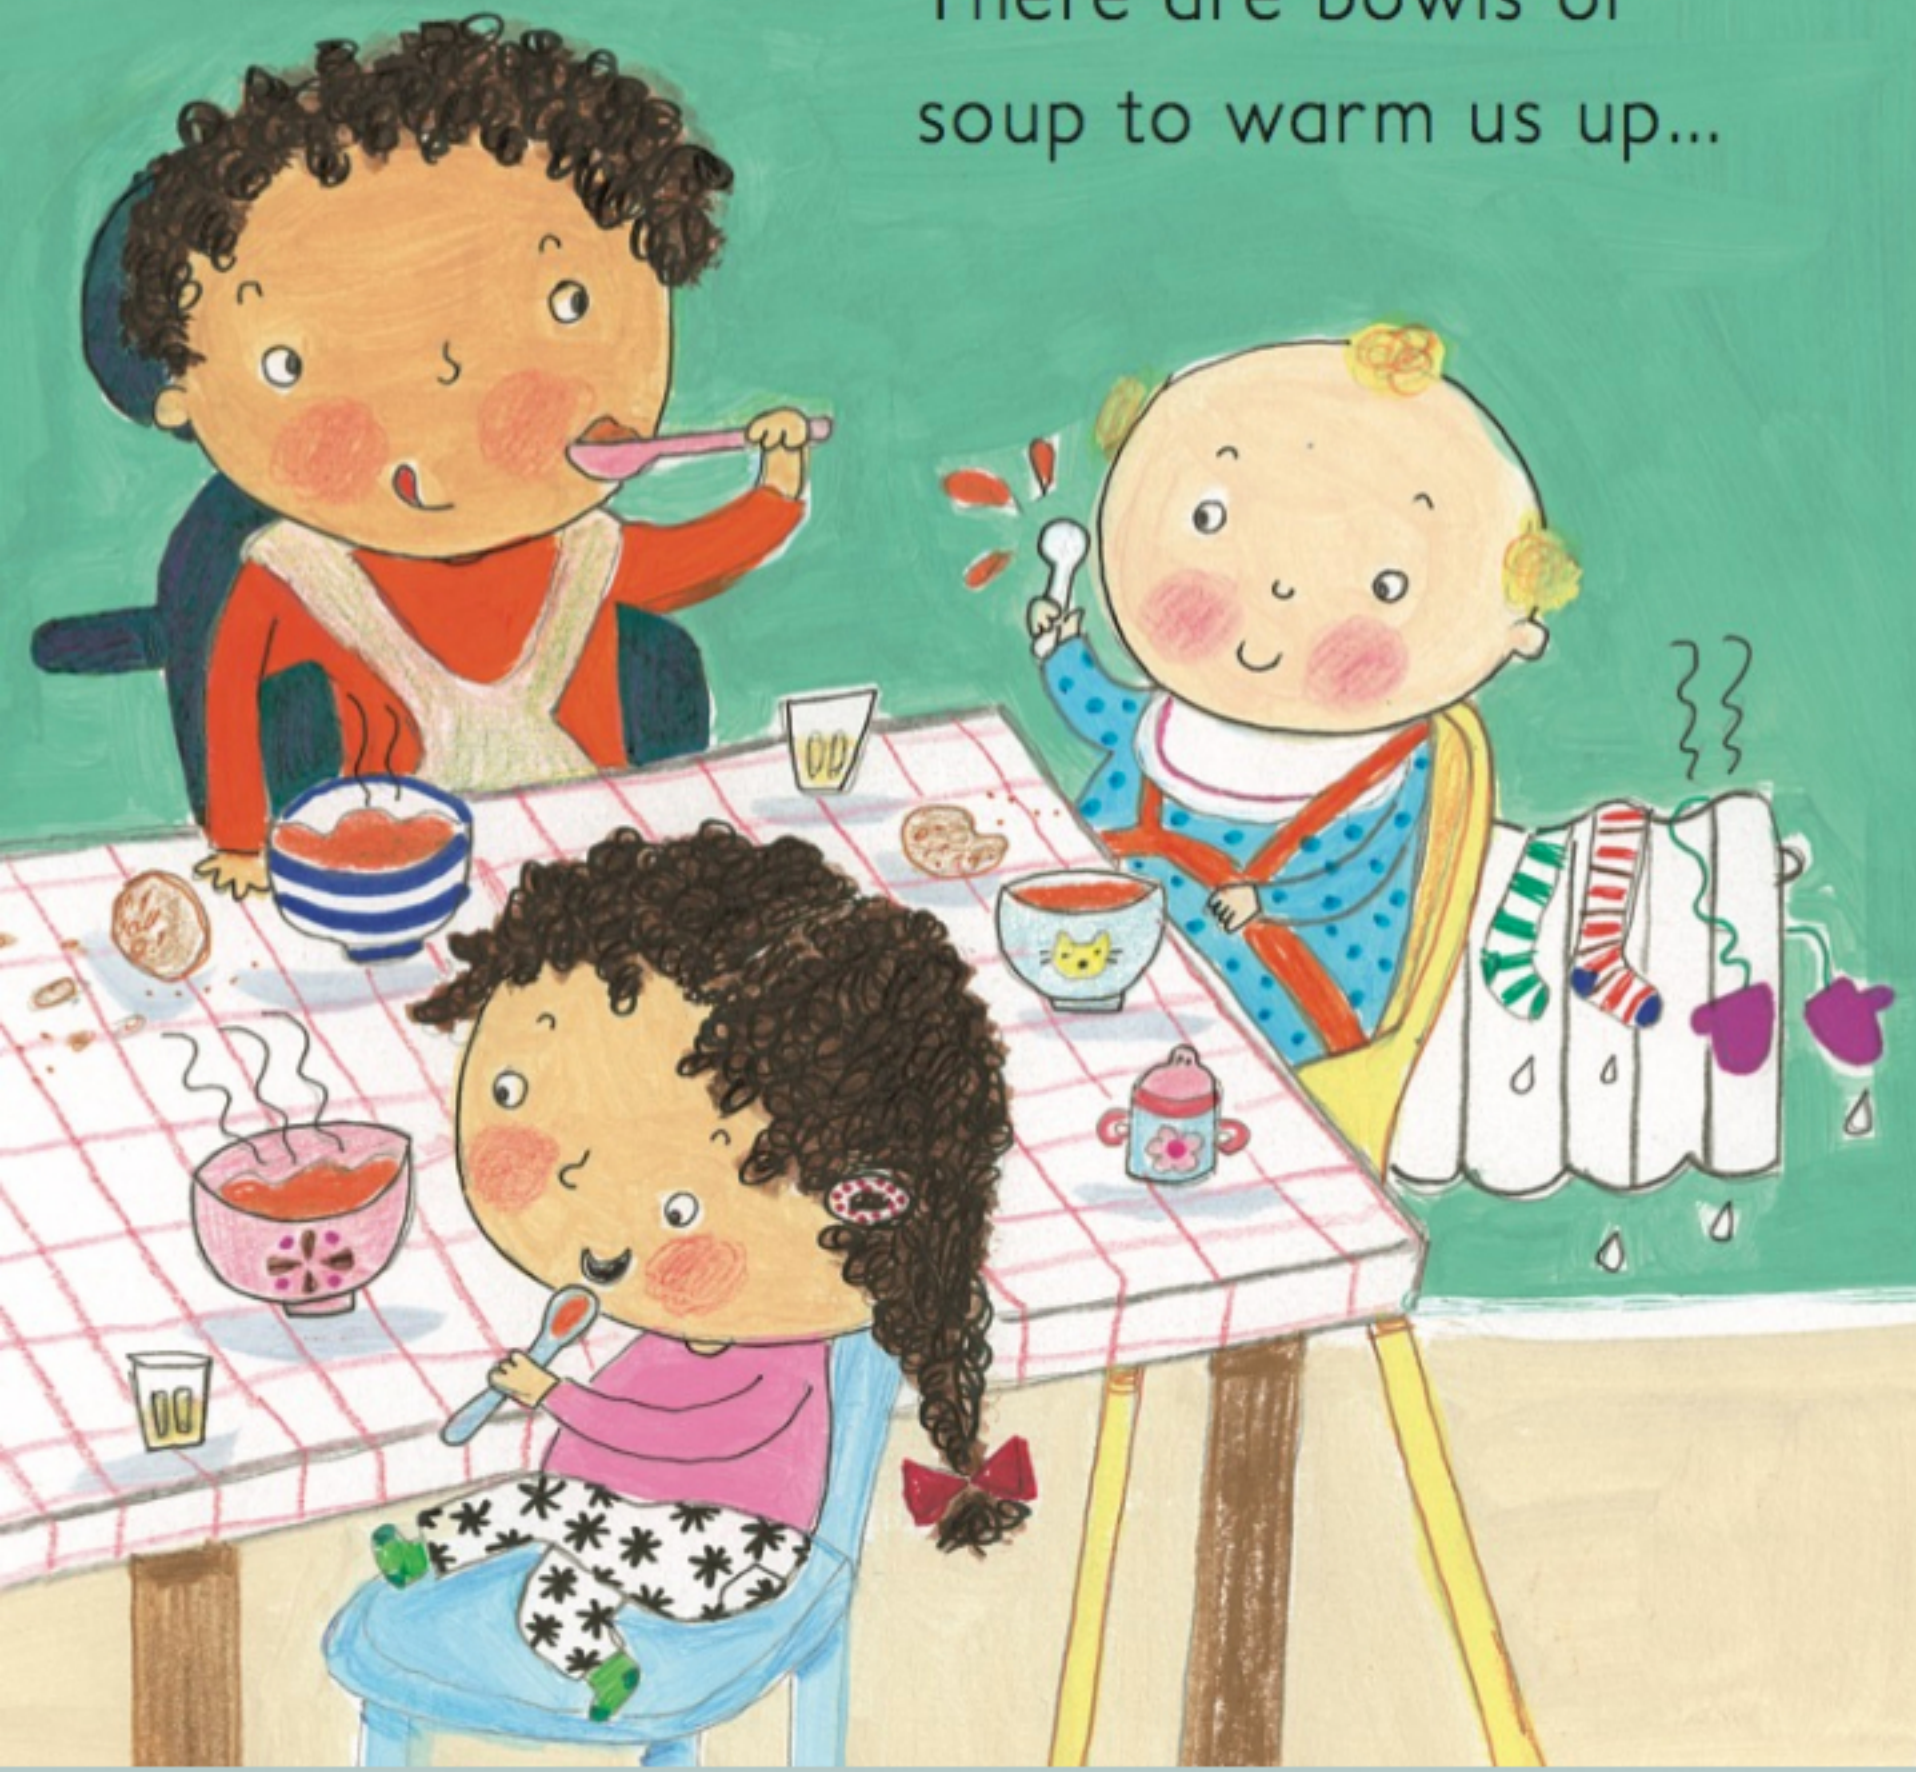

There are snowflakes
and snow fights...

...frozen fingers and
soggy socks!

There are bowls of
soup to warm us up...

...and seeds for
the hungry
birds.

We play indoor games
on snug indoor days...

...like hide-and-seek
and dressing up.

We watch the stars
come out
one by one...

...share bedtime stories...

...and
snuggle
up
warm.
